

Councilmember Monica Montgomery Steppe

Councilmember Monica Montgomery Steppe represents the Fourth Council District in the City of San Diego. She earned a Bachelor's degree in Political Science from Spelman College and a Juris Doctor from California Western School of Law. With a combination of knowledge and passion, Monica is dedicated to improving and uplifting the city of San Diego as a whole and the people in the Fourth Council District. Monica strongly advocates for equitable practices in government, including better economic opportunities for people of color and better relationships between community members and police officers.

Monica fights for the socio-economic advancement of every person, family, and neighborhood. She has demonstrated the courage, commitment, consistency, and civic knowledge to improve the quality of life for our most vulnerable communities. For her leadership, Monica has received many notable accolades and awards, including 2018 Voice of San Diego Voice of the Year, the 2019 San Diego Democratic Party Making a Difference Award and the 2021 Ashley L. Walker Social Justice Award from Alliance San Diego. She is married to Steven Steppe and resides in the Skyline neighborhood in San Diego. Monica Montgomery Steppe was appointed to the Reparations Task Force by President pro Tempore of the Senate Toni Atkins.
